

WHITNASH TOWN COUNCIL

Freedom of Information / Publication Scheme

Whitnash Town Council is subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act that was passed on 30 November 2000. This Act gives members of the Public a general right of access to all types of 'recorded' information held by the Town Council. This is subject to certain exemptions.

The Town Council endeavours to provide Freedom of Information requests within 20 working days of receipt.

Whitnash Town Council has adopted a Publication Scheme which sets out the types of information the Council publishes, the manner in which the information is published and the details of any charges.

If you wish to obtain information from Whitnash Town Council, please complete the Freedom of Information form to process your request.

Please email request to Town Clerk – town.clerk@whitnashtowncouncil.gov.uk
